First Baptist Church of Torrance

J. Whitfield Green, pastor. There will be five candidates for baptism next Sunday at 7:30 p. m. Mr. Green will preach a short sermon on "Buried With Christ Through Baptism." This is a joyful occasion when the young folks forsake their sins and take our Lord as their standard-bearer.

Our evangelistic meetings and the old revival song service on Sunday night are making a big hit. You are all cordially invited to attend our home church, where you will be made welcome.

LIVING HE LOVED ME
Living he loved me, dying he saved me;
Buried he carried my sins away;
Rising he justified freely forever:
One day he's coming—oh, glorious day!

Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Morning service, 11 o'clock. Young People, 8:45 p. m. Evening song service, 7:30. Wednesday evening, prayer meeting.

Lomita Community Church

Morning worship, 11 o'clock—"The Stewardship of Life." Evening worship, 7:30 o'clock—"The Call of Moses." Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.; L. J. Hunter, superintendent. Intermediate C. E. prayer meeting, 8:30 p. m.; topic, "In His Steps: How and When Jesus Prayed"; leader, Erwin Patterson. Junior C. E. prayer meeting, 8:30 p. m.; Mrs. C. P. Roberts, superintendent.

All are cordially invited to these services. E. E. Clark, pastor.

Methodist Church

There was a large congregation, especially of men, out to the service last Sunday evening. Several of the choir were laid off on account of colds, but the new orchestra did splendid service. The violin solo by Miss Gray was greatly appreciated. The people are pleased with this new addition to the church music.

The pastor will speak Sunday morning on "Crucifixions."

The Ulmer orchestra, from First church, Los Angeles, is coming for Sunday evening and will give a full program of music. The Ulmer family—five in number—all played in Dr. Morris' church orchestra in Omaha several years ago. Irving was then a mere boy. Now at 20 years of age he is leader of this great orchestra of some one hundred pieces. There will be about 25 or thirty in the company Sunday night.

The Flower-Screen concert will be given in the church Friday evening, Jan. 18. This will be a home talent entertainment, and is free and open to the public. A silver offering will be taken for the purchase of music for the choir.

The church is greatly pleased with the new clock placed there as a present from Mr. Parr. It is of real "Parr Value." The preacher now keeps time on his flock.

Come to Sunday school next Sunday at 9:45.

We are delighted to announce that Miss Cronemiller will be with the Ulmer orchestra Sunday night and will render a solo or two. She is a wonderful singer.

Christian Church

W. T. Adams, pastor; Scott Ludlow, superintendent Bible school.

For the present the services are being held in the American Legion hall, but we hope to have a permanent location soon. But even as it is, the services are growing in interest from Sunday to Sunday. The attendance last Sunday, both at the Sunday school and the church services, was fine, and there were a number of new faces present. This is very encouraging, but there are still others who should be attending the services every Sunday. Come once and you will want to come again. The Lord's day is for worship and not for work or play. What would our country be without the church and the Lord's day? God pity us when we cease to observe them as they should be observed. A cordial invitation is extended to you to attend the services next Sunday. Bible school at 10 a. m. Church services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
